The Staff Side [NFIR] had raised the issue in the PNM that instructions issued vide Board's letter No. PC-III/2004/CRC/1 [Pt.1] dated 22.03.2007 regarding introduction of new category of Sr. P.Way Supervisor [Rs.5000-8000] in place of P.Way Supervisor [Rs.4500-7000+100 SA] do not cover the cases of staff who are medically de-categorised between the period from the date of issue of orders to the actual date of implementation of these orders.

The issue has been examined by Board and it has been decided that the employees who were on sanctioned cadre strength of the Track Supervisors [erstwhile P.W.Mistries/Supervisors Permanent Way] as on 22.03.2007 but medically de-categorised between the period from the date of issue of Board's orders dated 22.03.2007 to the actual date of implementation of these orders, are also entitled to the fixation benefit and arrears as per Board's orders dated 22.03.2007, till the date of their medical decategorisation as in the case of employees who retire/ resign /expired from service during this period.

This issues in consultation with the Establishment and Finance Directorates of this Ministry.
