Attention is invited to Board's letter No. E[NG]I-2015/CFP/12 dated 24.06.2016 [SC No.59/2016] wherein their decision on inclusion of Safaiwalas / Jamedars in the existing AVCs was communicated.

Subsequently, after discussions in the PNM meeting held with SCRE Sangh, addendum for including the Safaiwalas /Jamedars in the existing AVCs was issued vide this office letter dated 10.08.2017 as under, duly fixing a target date for issuing the revised AVC in consultation with the organised labour:

- [1] Safaiwalas of all departments are eligible to be transferred to Mechanical Workshops, Works Branch, Traffic and Commercial Department against 10% annual quota of vacancies.
- [2] Safaiwalas should be included in the cadre of Helper / Khalasis after 5 years of service on bottom seniority in all the departments for further promotion as Tech.III in GP 1900 as per seniority / suitability and qualifications.
- [3] In the AVC to the post of Motor Vehicle Drivers in all departments, Safaiwalas of all departments in possession of qualification and driving licence /experience are also eligible to apply.
- [4] Where channel of promotion for further progression does not exist, Safaiwalas are also eligible to appear in the selection to posts in GP 1900 / Level-2.
- [5] Safaiwalas are also eligible to appear for posts in the categories of TC, Office Clerk and Accounts Clerks against promotional & LDCE quotas.

GS/SCRMU vide letter No.SCRMU/CO/608 dated 04.09.2017 has also pointed out that till date no action has been taken to review the AVC of the Safaiwalas /Jamedars thereby denying the benefits envisaged in Board's letter supra.

PCPO desires that the cadre Officers in HQrs, Accounts, Divisions and Workshops should take immediate action, wherever necessary, for modifying the AVCs in consultation with the organised labour, if not already done, on or before 31.10.2017 and compliance reported to the undersigned to apprise the position to PCPO.
